Athletics Meet

Delhi Public School Roni, Sector 4, hosted a groundbreaking Athletics Meet for special children on January 25, 2024. This inclusive event brought together 140 athletes from 16 different NGOs and schools, showcasing the spirit of unity and sportsmanship. The venue, Delhi Public School Roni, provided an ideal setting for the participants to engage in various athletic activities, fostering an atmosphere of encouragement and camaraderie.

The success of the meet was largely attributed to the dedicated efforts of four volunteers from the Indira Gandhi Institute of Physical Education, Sports, and Science, led by the capable volunteer coordinator, Mr. Abhishek Kumar. The volunteers, namely Shruti, Farman, Nandita, and Pinki, played pivotal roles in ensuring the event's seamless execution.

Shruti, Farman, Nandita, and Pinki demonstrated unwavering commitment by assisting the 140 athletes throughout the event. From organizing activities to providing emotional support, their involvement was instrumental in creating a positive and inclusive environment. Mr. Abhishek Kumar's leadership skills were evident in coordinating the volunteers effectively, ensuring a synchronized and well-managed event.

The participation of athletes from diverse backgrounds and abilities highlighted the event's commitment to inclusivity. The Athletics Meet not only showcased the athletic talents of the special children but also emphasized the importance of breaking barriers and fostering a sense of community.
