Events report 2024

Tennis, Table Tennis, and Roller Skating State Championship 2024

The Tennis, Table Tennis, and Roller Skating State Championship 2024, organized by Special Olympics Bharat Delhi, unfolded with remarkable success on the 11th and 12th of January 2024 at Tagore International School, East of Kailash. At the heart of this event's success were the dedicated volunteers from the Indira Gandhi Institute of Physical Education, Sports, and Science, led by the enthusiastic volunteer coordinator, Mr. Abhishek Kumar.

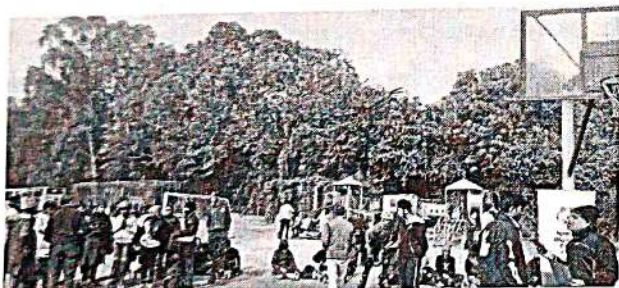

The four volunteers from the institute played a pivotal role in ensuring the seamless execution of the championship. Their commitment was evident in various aspects, from event planning to on-the-ground coordination. Mr. Abhishek Kumar, as the volunteer coordinator, demonstrated exemplary leadership, ensuring that the team worked cohesively and efficiently. His organizational skills and passion for the cause contributed significantly to the positive atmosphere of the championship.

The volunteers were involved in a myriad of responsibilities, ranging from assisting participants during the competitions to managing logistical aspects of the event. Their active engagement ensured that both athletes and spectators experienced a well-organized and enjoyable event. Beyond their duties, the volunteers also acted as ambassadors of inclusivity, fostering an environment that celebrated diversity and encouraged the athletes to showcase their abilities.
