Events report 2024

National Female Floorball Championship January 27th to 31st

The National Female Floorball Championship, hosted by Special Olympics Bharat Delhi, unfolded with great fervor from January 27th to 31st at the esteemed Yuvashakti Model School in Sector 3, Rohini, New Delhi. This five-day sporting extravaganza showcased the prowess of athletes from 14 different states, uniting them in the spirit of competition and camaraderie.

The event was graced by the presence of Mr. Hans Raj Hans, a distinguished figure who served as the chief guest, adding prestige and encouragement to the participants. His support and encouragement resonated with the competitors, inspiring them to give their best on the floorball court.

Dr. Mallika Nadda, the esteemed President of Special Olympics Bharat, presided over the championship, exemplifying her commitment to promoting inclusive sports. As a leader in the field, Dr. Nadda's involvement highlighted the significance of such events in fostering unity, breaking barriers, and promoting the talents of athletes with intellectual disabilities.

Vikram Singh Rawat, the Area Director of Special Olympics Bharat Delhi, played a pivotal role in ensuring the smooth execution of the championship. His leadership and organizational skills contributed to creating an environment where athletes could showcase their skills while fostering a sense of community among participants and spectators alike.

Volunteers, a crucial backbone of any successful event, provided invaluable support throughout the championship. Special thanks are due to the volunteers from the Indira Gandhi Institute of Physical Education, Sports, and Science. Their dedication and enthusiasm enhanced the overall experience, ensuring the seamless execution of various aspects of the event.

Mr. Abhishek Kumar, serving as the Volunteer Coordinator, played a pivotal role in orchestrating the efforts of volunteers. His coordination and leadership skills were evident in the smooth functioning of the championship, contributing significantly to its success. The commitment of Mr. Kumar and his team of volunteers reflects the importance of community engagement and support in organizing events of this magnitude.

The championship was not merely a platform for athletic competition; it was a celebration of diversity, inclusion, and the power of sports to transcend barriers. Athletes from different states came together, showcasing not only their sporting talents but also fostering a sense of unity that goes beyond regional boundaries.

The Yuvashakti Model School in Sector 3, Rohini, New Delhi, proved to be an ideal venue for the championship. Its facilities and infrastructure provided a conducive environment for the athletes to exhibit their skills and compete at the highest level. The school's commitment to hosting such events contributes to the broader goal of promoting sports and inclusivity.
